CM Revanth Reddyâ??s conspiracy on comprehensive caste census and 42 percent reservation
Trying to get into legal trouble
An ultimatum to the government to state a clear stand

Hyderabad: Janasabha state president Rajaram Yadav has warned the government that if it does not announce a clear stand on comprehensive caste census and 42 percent reservation for BCs in local bodies, they will lay siege to the secretariat on July 15. On Thursday morning, a press conference was held at Hyderabad Somajiguda Press Club along with various BC caste associations and BC associations. Speaking on this occasion, Rajaram demanded that the government should implement the promises announced in the Kamareddy Declaration. However, the Revanth Reddy government is trying to strangle the BCs once again without giving a comprehensive caste census and 42 percent reservation to the BCs, Rajaram Yadav alleged. He criticized that the entire history of the Congress partyâ??is a history of cheating the BCs. Rahulâ??s grandfather Jawahar Lal Nehruâ??s uncle had blocked the Kalelkar Commission, while his grandmother Indira Gandhi had kept the Mandal Commissionâ??s report in cold storage. He said that Rajiv Gandhiâ??s statement as a parliament witness that if reservation is given to BCs, the country will be divided is proof of the Gandhi familyâ??s opposition to BCs. He asked Chief Minister Revanth Reddy whether he should value the words of Rahul Gandhi who is holding on to the constitution and saying that caste census will be done across the country and whose share will be determined on the basis of population. You who campaigned that if you vote for Modi, you will abolish the constitution and reservations, why are you ignoring them when you come to power?

Rajaram Yadav said that Chief Minister Revanth Reddy is conspiring to hold elections to the local bodies after filing a petition in the High Court with some private individuals on the issue of reservation. For the future of future generations of our children, BC castes and communities came together and appealed to the Chalo Secretariat siege program launched on 15th July. He said that even if the government bends its neck, the promises given to the BCs will be implemented. He said that BCs are ready to give due advice to the Congress party in the next election if they go ahead stubbornly without implementing the promises given. BC Hindu Mahasabha state president Battula Siddeshwar has accused BC Hindu Mahasabha state president Battula Siddeshwar of deceiving BCs by saying that reservation will be decided on the basis of voter list. However, MPTC Forum state president Karunakar Mudiraj alleged that the government has no idea of giving 42 percent reservation to BCs. OU Student Unions JAC Chairman Elchala Dattatreya asked why the BC leaders in the Congress party are not talking about this. On the other hand, eminent lawyer and women leader of BC Association Sharada Goud appealed to make the Chalo Secretariat program launched on July 15 a success.

T.Journalists Forum State President Mekala Krishna, Advocate JAC State President Lodangi Govardhan, Mudiraj Association Leaders Raju Mudiraj, Nomads State President Nimmala Veeranna, BC Caste Sanghas United Platform Spokesperson Mahesh Goud, OU Student Leader Lingam Salivahana, Hindu BC Mahasabha State Working President Kongara Narahari, Padmasali Sangam leader Ashok Posham and others participated.
