Tollywood senior actor Ravi Prakash, known for his powerful portrayals of police officers, once again dons the khaki uniform in Vidrohi. However, this time, his role goes beyond the routine â?? layered, intense, and emotionally charged. Directed by V.S.V., Vidrohi is a suspense crime thriller that keeps the audience hooked with its fresh storyline and realistic narration. The film stars Ravi Prakash, Shiva Kumar, Charishma Srikar, and Sai Ki in key roles. Produced by Vijjana Venkata Subrahmanyam and Pappula Kanakadurga Rao under the Magic Movies banner, the film hit the screens on October 24.

Plot Overview
The story revolves around Karthik (Ravi Prakash), an Inspector serving in the Suryapet Town Circle, and his wife Dr. Niharika, who works at Avish Hospital. A masked criminal terrorizes the town by committing a series of gruesome crimes â?? raping and murdering women after drugging them in their homes.

When the daughter of Dr. Niharikaâ??s close friend Pavitra becomes one of the victims, the emotional weight of the case intensifies. Although Pavitra pleads for secrecy, Niharika confides in her husband, prompting Karthik to launch a secret investigation. As the crimes escalate, with even a newlywed bride falling victim, the investigation unfolds shocking truths that lead to an unexpected climax.

Performances

Ravi Prakash delivers one of his career-best performances, portraying the role of Inspector Karthik with great conviction. Unlike his previous police roles, this character carries deeper emotional layers and moral complexity. Shiva Kumar also impresses with his strong screen presence, perfectly complementing Ravi Prakashâ??s intensity. Charishma Srikar and Sai Ki add depth to the narrative with natural performances.

Direction and Screenplay

Director V.S.V. deserves appreciation for crafting a fresh and gripping narrative that Tollywood has rarely seen before. The story, screenplay, dialogues, and direction showcase his storytelling strength. The film maintains suspense throughout, offering a blend of crime, emotion, and social relevance. V.S.V.â??s execution keeps the tension alive from start to finish, proving his command over the thriller genre.

Technical Brilliance

The filmâ??s technical departments add solid value to the experience:

Music: Bheems Ceciroleo, of Sankranthiki Vasthunnam fame, delivers impressive songs and a haunting background score that perfectly suits the filmâ??s dark tone.

Cinematography: Satish Muthyalaâ??s visuals are sharp and atmospheric, enhancing the suspense mood.

Editing: Upendra and MNR ensure a tight narrative flow.

Art Direction: Ravi Babu Dondapatiâ??s sets bring realism to every frame.

Fights and Choreography: Dragon Prakash, Sun Ray Master, and Mohan Krishna Master handle the action and dance sequences effectively.

CG and DI work by Anil Kumar Bangaru and Ganesh Kommarapu further polish the filmâ??s visual appeal.

Verdict
Vidrohi stands out as a strong, thought-provoking, and emotionally gripping crime thriller. With Ravi Prakashâ??s stellar performance, V.S.V.â??s impactful storytelling, and a unique storyline that breaks conventional Tollywood norms, the film offers a fresh cinematic experience for audiences who enjoy intense thrillers.

A must-watch for those who love suspense, emotion, and powerful performances.
