

ATA Meet & Greet with Producer Nageswara Rao Pujari Held in Sterling, Virginia

Description

Sterling, Virginia: A grand Meet & Greet program with Tollywood producer Nageswara Rao Pujari was successfully organized under the auspices of the American Telugu Association (ATA). The event received an overwhelming response from Telugu people across the DMV (DC??Maryland??Virginia) region.

Renowned advocate, prominent social media influencer, and producer of films such as Raju Weds Rambai and Ee Nagarani Emaindi ?? Part 2, Nageswara Rao Pujari shared insights from his life journey, cinematic experiences, and views on social responsibility. The interactive Q&A session with him greatly inspired the youth and those aspiring to enter the film industry.

On this occasion, ATA President Jayanth Challa stated that ATA's core objectives are the preservation of Telugu culture, encouragement of creative talent, and strengthening social unity. He added that ATA serves as a bridge between India and the United States by organizing Meet & Greet programs with eminent personalities visiting from India. He also highlighted the success of ATA programs conducted across the two Telugu states over the past month.

The event was smoothly coordinated by the ATA Conference Core Committee and Executive Committee, with key roles played by ATA Core Committee members Ravi Challa, Jeenath Kundooru, Kaushik Sama, Ramesh Bheem Reddy, Thirmal Munukuntla, Virginia Vikas, and Madhu Yanaganti.

Conference Committee member Ravi Challa invited everyone to participate and make a success of the 19th ATA Conference & Youth Convention, scheduled to be held from July 31 to August 2, 2026, at the Baltimore Convention Center.

ATA representatives expressed their heartfelt gratitude to guest Nageswara Rao Pujari and to all attendees who participated and contributed to the success of the program.

Category

1. Latest News

Date Created

January 19, 2026

Author

admin