HYDERABAD (Manikonda):

Sistla International Pre-School, committed to delivering quality education alongside discipline, creativity, and core ethical values, celebrated its 1st anniversary with grand festivities in Manikonda. Established in October last year, the institution marked its milestone anniversary event with strong participation from film personalities, educationists, and parents.

The celebrations were organized under the leadership of the school's Chairman, Lohith Sistla. Renowned actor Rajeev Kanakala, actress Vithika Sheru, and prominent motivational speaker Pradeep Kondiparthi graced the occasion as Chief Guests.

Key Highlights & Speeches

Value-Based Education is Commendable Pradeep Kondiparthi: Speaking at the event, motivational speaker Pradeep Kondiparthi commended Chairman Lohith Sistla for his clear vision and forward-looking approach toward early childhood education. He appreciated the institution's emphasis on instilling strong moral values, discipline, and character alongside academic learning.

Impressed by the Modern Curriculum Rajeev Kanakala: Actor Rajeev Kanakala shared that he attended the event out of his close bond with the school management. "I came with the intention of sharing a few insights on early childhood education, but after watching the school's audio-visual (AV) presentation, I was pleasantly surprised. Almost all the modern educational concepts I planned to suggest are already integrated into their curriculum," he said. He wished the institution continued success over the next 25 years.

Early Nurturing Shapes the Future Vithika Sheru: Actress Vithika Sheru expressed delight in spending time with the children, emphasizing that foundational schooling plays a pivotal role in every individual's life. Recalling how her mother's early encouragement shaped her own career, she praised the pre-school for identifying and supporting children's unique talents from an early age.

Childhood Vision Inspired the School • Lohith Sistla (Chairman): Chairman Lohith Sistla shared that his own childhood experiences motivated him to establish the school. "During my school days, I always wished for an educational framework tailored to students' personal interests and aptitudes. That vision led to the creation of this pre-school with international standards," he explained, adding that the institution is a deeply emotional passion project rather than just a venture.

Cultural Programs & Performances

Popular anchor Niharika hosted the event seamlessly. A highlights segment included a Kuchipudi dance recital performed by the Kaustubha Kuchipudi Group, directed by Shobha Gopu, which captivated the audience. Vibrant cultural performances and fun activities by the toddlers added charm to the celebrations.

The event concluded on a high note in the presence of School Principal Moghosh, faculty members, parents, and distinguished guests.
