

TDF Dussehra and Bathukamma Celebrations Held Grandly in Detroit

Description

Vibrant festivities showcase Telangana's rich culture and traditions, bringing the Telugu community together in the United States

Detroit, Michigan: The Telangana Development Forum (TDF) organized grand Dussehra and Bathukamma celebrations in Detroit, Michigan, bringing together members of the Telugu community in a vibrant display of Telangana's rich cultural heritage and traditions.

The celebrations were held under the leadership of TDF Detroit President Mahesh Burulu, with the support of TDF National President Bharat Naravetla, prominent community members, working committee members, advisory board members, volunteers, and other supporters.

The traditional Bathukamma festivities, Jammi Puja, and Dhol-Tasha performances were among the major highlights of the event. Women participated enthusiastically with beautifully decorated Bathukammas, adding colour and festive charm to the celebrations. Traditional folk songs, cultural performances, and Dandiya dances further energized the gathering and entertained the audience.

Food stalls featuring a variety of delicious dishes attracted visitors, while children, youth, and families participated in the festivities with great enthusiasm. The event provided an opportunity for Telugu families to come together, celebrate their cultural roots, and strengthen their bonds within the diaspora.

The organizers expressed their appreciation to the committee members, volunteers, sponsors, and everyone who contributed to making the celebrations a grand success.

The Dussehra and Bathukamma festivities organized by TDF in Detroit stood as a wonderful example of community unity and the Telugu diaspora's enduring love for its cultural heritage. The celebrations also highlighted the importance of preserving Telangana's traditions and passing them on to future generations, even while living far from their homeland.
