â?? Dwarka city, an ancient world capital â?? Findings presented by â??ITS 6TH WOWâ?• organization â?? Research led by Ravindrajith
â?? Appreciated by CM Chandrababu Naidu

Amaravati : Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister Chandrababu Naidu launched the â??Jai Dwarka Campaignâ?• at the state secretariat. He praised the remarkable research by renowned historian Ravindrajith, which was conducted under the guidance of â??ITS 6TH WOW.â?• The research highlights the underwater ancient city of Dwarka, once a capital city of the world. The Chief Minister expressed his joy at the revelation brought forward by the ancient verse â??Krishnam Vande Jagadgurumâ?• that sheds light on Dwarkaâ??s historic significance. He also pledged his support to the campaign. Brochures were distributed by organizers during the event in Amaravati.

Members of the â??ITS 6TH WOWâ?• organization have gathered evidence through their research that Dwarka once served as a world capital. As part of the â??Jai Dwarka Campaign,â?• the organization is working to get Dwarka recognized on UNESCOâ??s World Heritage Sites list. On â??World Tourist Race Day,â?• scheduled for February 17, the organization plans to create a â??Jai Dwarkaâ?• logo on the Dwarka Sea with the participation of 700 people. This event aims to set a Guinness World Record. The logo is designed to represent Lord Krishnaâ??s seven peacock feathers and symbolizes the worldâ??s seven ancient civilizations.

The event was attended by â??Jai Dwarka Campaignâ?• organizers, ITS 6TH WOW General Secretary Ravindrajith, Campaign Coordinator K. Koteshwara Rao, and Campaign Executive Mondi Prabhu Kumar.
