Description

IUML Bolsters National Presence in INDIA Alliance

Sayyid Munavvar Ali Shihab Thangal, National Secretary of the Indian Union Muslim League (IUML), reaffirmed the party's commitment to fortifying the INDIA alliance at the national level. Emphasizing opposition unity, Thangal highlighted IUML's growing influence in national politics as a key ally. The party's focus on advocating for minority rights and empowering marginalized communities, including Dalits and backward classes, has elevated its national significance.

Through its three-pronged mission—youth development, women's empowerment, and upliftment of backward communities—IUML has solidified its role as a progressive force in India's pluralistic democracy. This commitment was recently recognized when Tamil Nadu honored IUML President K.M. Khader Mohideen with the prestigious Thagaisal Tamilar, the state's highest civilian award, for his decades of socio-political leadership.
