

Justin Trudeau cornered by own party MPs, calls for resignation grow louder

Description

Liberal MP Sean Casey's public call for Justin Trudeau to step down comes amid growing distrust within the Liberal Party, including electoral setbacks, internal pressure, and public discontent.

Liberal MP Sean Casey publicly calls for Trudeau's resignation

Montreal MP Anthony Housefather seeks discussion on Trudeau's leadership

Liberal Party suffers electoral setbacks in Montreal and Toronto

Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau finds himself under growing pressure from within his own Liberal Party to step down. The political unrest comes at a critical time, with MPs questioning Trudeau's leadership.

Liberal MP Sean Casey has taken a bold step, publicly calling for Trudeau's resignation. Speaking on CBC News, Casey said, "The message that I've been getting loud and clear and more and more strongly as time goes by is that it is time for [Trudeau] to go. And I agree."

Category

1. Latest News

Date Created

October 16, 2024

Author

admin