

Mohan Vadlapatla Jo Sharma Pan India Movie M4M (Motive For Murder) Hindi Trailer Launched Grandly at the Goa Film Festival

Description

Director and Filmmaker Mohan Vadlapatla unveiled the Hindi trailer of his pan-India film M4M (Motive For Murder) at the prestigious Goa IFFI Kala Academy IMPPA platform at the Goa Film Festival. The Hindi trailer was released by Atul Patel, Vice President of the Indian Motion Pictures Producers Association (IMPPA), who attended as the chief guest along with other dignitaries. M4M Movie posters are being promoted on IFFI-GOA Red Carpet at Inox.

Speaking on the occasion, Atul praised the trailer for its brilliance, describing it as a fresh and exciting take on the serial killer concept. He commended Mohan Vadlapatla for his significant effort to create such compelling content for audiences across India. Atul also congratulated debut actress Jo Sharma, M4M Heroine, who stars as the female lead in the movie, and expressed his best wishes for the film's success.

Adding to the event's glamour, Jo Sharma, an American actress, was a star attraction at the IFFI Goa coastline celebration. She shared her excitement about the trailer launch in Goa, describing it as a unique experience. Jo called the serial killer concept innovative and highly engaging, noting that such a theme is being explored for the first time in Indian cinema's 110-year history. She expressed her pride in debuting as the lead actress in M4M and extended heartfelt gratitude to Mohan Vadlapatla and IMPPA officials for the opportunity.

Director-producer Mohan Vadlapatla, addressing the media, expressed his delight over the Hindi trailer's release at the prestigious Goa International Film Festival (IFFI). He thanked Atul, IMPPA officials, and prominent figures from the Indian and international film industry for their support. Mohan highlighted the universal appeal of M4M and shared his confidence that audiences worldwide would be thrilled by the film's content. He teased that the reveal of the "Motive for Murder" will blow audiences' minds and promised an unprecedented cinematic experience.

Mohan Vadlapatla also revealed that the suspense thriller, filmed in Telugu, Hindi, Tamil, Kannada, and Malayalam, is set for a global release soon. He described the movie as a unique psychological narrative and assured audiences that M4M would offer an entirely new cinematic journey. Odisha superstar Sambit Acharya and Jo Sharma will lead the cast, marking the beginning of a new chapter for them on a pan-India scale.

Category

1. Entertainment

Tags

1. goa film festival
2. hindi trailer launch
3. iffi
4. impa
5. indian cinema

6. jo sharma
7. m4m
8. m4m movie motive for murder
9. mohan vadlapatla
10. pan-india movie
11. serial killer concept
12. suspense thriller

Date Created

November 24, 2024

Author

admin

default watermark