

'Nanna... Malli Rava..!' Tears Flow at Heartfelt Preview Screening

Description

Hyderabad: An emotional wave swept through Ramanaidu Studios as the preview screening of 'Nanna... Malli Rava..!' left attendees deeply moved. The Telugu film, directed by Niradesh and produced by Dr. Uma Rao under Kamal Creations, promises a poignant exploration of the father-child bond, a theme that clearly resonated with the preview audience.

Veteran actor Satya Prakash leads a talented cast, including Prabhavati, Ritvik, Harika, and Shireesha, in a story that reportedly elicited genuine tears from viewers. The film, centered on the simple yet profound plea, 'Nanna... Malli Rava..!' (Father... Come Again!), aims to capture the essence of familial love and loss.

During filming, the emotions were so real that tears flowed naturally, shared Satya Prakash, reflecting on his experience. It felt less like acting and more like living through those moments. Director Niradesh's exceptional storytelling and direction made this a truly unique and heartfelt experience. Films like this, which celebrate the family, are rare.

Director Nirdesh, witnessing the audience's emotional response, expressed confidence in the film's impact. "Seeing the tears and heartfelt reactions confirms that we have created a meaningful film," he stated. "The connection between a father and child is beyond words, and I believe this movie will deeply touch audiences in theaters."

Ritvik, who portrays the character Keshav, revealed a personal connection to the story. "This film helped me truly understand the irreplaceable role of a father," he said. "An emotional scene during the shoot deeply affected me, making this film forever special to my heart, just like my own father."

Producer Dr. Uma Rao expressed gratitude to the Telugu audience and emphasized the film's universal appeal. "We have created a film that will resonate with everyone," he said. "We are now finalizing censor formalities and will soon announce the official release date."

"Nanna" Malli Rava promises to be a powerful cinematic experience, and the overwhelming emotional response from the preview suggests it will be a must-watch for families seeking a heartfelt story.

Category

1. Entertainment

Date Created

March 18, 2025

Author

admin

default watermark