

United in Action Against Social Evils • Joint Anti-Drugs Committee

Description

The Joint Anti-Drug Committee Jeddah has vowed to work collectively against social evils. This decision was made during a seminar titled "Intoxication Concerns" organized by Jeddah Kerala Pauravali. Representatives from various social organizations participated in the event, emphasizing the need for united action in tackling drug abuse and related issues and commits to fighting Social Evils.

As part of this initiative, a series of awareness programs will be conducted in future, including social media campaigns, video displays, awareness classes, and counselling sessions for both school students and parents. These efforts will take place in Jeddah and India, with the support of various social and cultural organizations.

The team will meet the concerned authorities to advocate for timely reforms in India's criminal laws, the upgrading of policies to curb social immoralities, and the tightening of censorship regulations for cinemas. Additionally, they will push for improvements in the educational system and the strict enforcement of laws to identify drug users through blood tests.
